Intrusions

Looking After Aickman: Artists and the Uncanny

To celebrate the centenary of the 'strange story' writer Robert Aickman

Paula Rego, Oona Grimes, Ana Maria Pacheco, Tassie Russell, Johanna Love, Dolores de Sade, Marcelle Hanselaar.

Private Views:
Tuesday 10th June 6-9p and Sunday 15th June 2-6pm

“There’s something wrong with something wrong with everything.”

‘Intrusions: Looking after’ celebrates his life, and presents seven major contemporaries of whom look through an article in a way that resonates with his vision.

The exhibition is accompanied by a programme of talks, readings; performances; events.

There is an afternoon ‘100th Birthday Celebration’ on both days. For tickets, please contact the gallery.

An exhibition catalogue is available from the gallery, priced £10.

Intrusions looks at the way Aickman’s work and his ideas have influenced seven major contemporary artists. The centenary of Aickman’s birth is celebrated with the exhibition looking at how the uncanny has been a singular influence in the works of the selected seven artists.

The exhibition will be accompanied by a programme of events, including an afternoon ‘100th Birthday Celebration’ on both days. For tickets, please contact the gallery. celebration, on 28th June, talks and discussion, followed by a party. The modern 'strange' and avant-garde John Harrison will join discussion from his own work. Email to receive an invitation. There is no charge, but spaces are limited, so please apply to participate.

Private views:
Tuesday 10 June 6-9 pm
Sunday 15 June 2-6 pm
Sunday 15 at 3 pm
Oona Grimes, Dolores Sotelo, Marcelle Hanselaar in conversation.

For all further details go to our Facebook page

98 Highgate Hill, London N6 5HE
Archway tube